Dear Roland:

Upon receipt of your letter of 10 February 1959 about applicant [REDACTED] I talked with [REDACTED] about their experiences with this man during his very brief employment with them. Apparently there is more than meets the eye in this case, and I feel sure that we would be running a serious risk of future difficulty were we to employ him at [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

Although I prefer to allow [REDACTED] chiefs to make their own decisions in employing persons locally, I feel that the circumstances in this particular case warrant an unfavorable decision by headquarters. I suggest you inform [REDACTED] that in view of unforeseen changes in personnel requirements, we find we have no vacancy for him. 25X1A9a

Sincerely,

Chief, [REDACTED]
